BROADWAY NAMED AS COUNTY'S TROUBLE SPOT

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

A Letter to a Man

Not all women want the "same-as-man" treatment. In addition to physicial differences, the psychological differences will forever be a barrier to the success of the "women's movement." Why they would want to sacrifice this difference to accommodate the "Libs" defies explanation. Most men would vote against it.

About 10 years ago songwriters Sy Miller, and his wife, former actress Jill Jackson, wrote a letter jointly which they captioned "Open Letter to a Man."

The letter carries a simple, low-key but potentially powerful message challenging today's animalistic, sex-oriented image of womanhood. The letter, which is gaining currency in news media, is reproduced herewith:

"I am a woman.

"I am your wife, your sweetheart, your mother, your daughter, your sister . . . your friend. I need your help

"I was created to give to the world gentleness, understanding, serenity, beauty and love. I am finding it increasingly difficult to fulfill my purpose.

"Many people in advertising, motion pictures, television and radio have ignored by inner qualities and have repeatedly used me only as a symbol of Sex.

"This humiliates me; it destroys my dignity; it prevents me from being what you want me to be — an example of beauty, inspiration and love.

"Love for my children, love for my husband, love for my God and country.

"I need your help to restore me to my true position; to allow me to fulfill the purpose for which I was created.

"I know you'll find a way."

The letter was discovered over a year ago by the Rev. Francis J. Caffrey of the Maryknoll Fathers and he started circulating it.

Ron D. Funk, the well-known managing editor of the Santa Monica EVENING OUTLOOK told the story of Father Caffrey and the Miller letter. He reproduced it in his column. Since then, many prominent business people and entertainment personalities have joined a quiet, underground movement protesting today's degradation of women as mere sex objects in hope of expanding its message of common decency throughout the world — a world where it is extremely difficult for a girl or young woman to believe anyone really cares about morality, femininity and virtue.

An invitation is extended to readers who might want to acquire free copies of the letter to distribute. The request should be sent to the Solo Cup Foundation, 7431 East End Ave., Chicage, Ill, 60649 with the request for the number of copies you desire. In addition, they say, a free recording of "Let There Be Peace" by Sy Miller and Jill Jackson will be included. There is no obligation, Solo says.

CRACK-UP CORNER — More accidents occur on Broadway in Lemon Grove than any other similar strip in the county — and most of these accidents occur at Broadway and Imperial. In the photo, looking east, is a van facing left-turn traffic head-on. There are no left-turn pockets here. The light is amber and all three will complete turns on a red light — setting themselves up for contact with north-south traffic. A 1971 improvement may change this.

'Left Turns Legal — But Often Unsafe' Says Highway Patrol

by Max Goodwin

Traffic conditions on Broadway in Lemon Grove may not be much worse than it has been — it just appears that way.

More motorists think they are getting "impeding traffic" and "U-turn" violation citations but records do not bear this out.

Broadway, particularly that area between Olive, west of the railway tracks, and Kempf, where raised median strips control traffic to the east, is the trouble spot of the county. County Traffic Safety Engineers have records to prove it. But traffic violation citations are stable.

Captain Vincent Herz, S.D. area commander, California Highway Patrol, said that there is no greater emphasis on traffic control citations in Lemon Grove than previously.

He assigned Street Traffic Sgt. Wendell Purkey to do a quick study of the situation and we drove the patrol car up and down Broadway a half-dozen times to see what violations were occurring. Few were.

Drivers were obeying the traffic laws — for the most part. "It is perfectly legal — but often unsafe — to make a left turn from the parking areas along Broadway between Imperial and Grove street," Sgt. Purkey said.

"Drivers cited for making this turn are charged with 'failure to yield' when they impede oncoming traffic," he said.

"Coming from privately owned property onto a highway a driver must yield to all vehicles," he said and he underscored "all".

The Highway Code does not permit U-turns in a business district except at intersections without traffic signals and at traffic controlled intersections where a sign gives this permission.

Every U-turn made at the Broadway-Kempf intersection and the Broadway-Imperial intersection and the stretch in-between is illegal, Purkey pointed out.

Another violator is the driver who "jumps the signal" in front of oncoming vehicles from Broadway onto Imperial or vice versa. The absence of left turn pockets on Broadway make many drivers restless and they either jump the light or follow in a procession after the light has changed. (See photo above.)

"The oncoming car has the right-of-way if he is in the intersection at the time the turning traffic starts to make its move, or constitutes a hazard during the turning movement," Purkey said. The unusually long east-west intersection at Broadway-Imperial further complicates traffic movement but the rule still applies, he added.

Many of these problems will be overcome in January when the County Road Department resurfaces Broadway.

"Left turn pockets on Broadway at Imperial will reduce the accident incidence sharply," said Howard Taylor, County Road Engineer. A meeting is scheduled this week between the L.G. Chamber of Commerce, Taylor and his staff, and a staff member of the Division of Highway to discuss the scheduled improvements.

Meanwhile, Hal Sorlie, principal engineer of the County Road Department's Engineering and Safety Department reported on the traffic volume along Broadway.

"18,000 vehicles a day move along the stretch of Broadway between Imperial and Kempf. The same period, ending July 1 of the year before 16,300 vehicles moved along it.

The accident rate increase is more dramatic, Sorlie said. The period ending July 1, 1970 saw 45 reported accidents along the stretch compared to 35 the previous year — an increase of 30 per cent," he said.

To add to the complexities soon will be the on-off Highway 94 ramp which will dump more traffic on Imperial. This project on Costa Bella, will eventually replace the Grove street ramping system. The Broadway improvement, with a new set of traffic signals will be engineered to ease pressure of the new traffic pattern.

Joseph Damberger, a design engineer with the State Division of Highways, who lives in Lemon Grove, said that the Costa Bella ramp would go to bid in 1971. The Grove st. ramp will be left until Highway 94/125 route is completed. That route will run along Sweetwater rd. but the timetable has not been set up. Jake Dekema, State Highway District Engineer said work on Highway 125 will follow Congress appropriating funds for it. Some people in the road business believe this may be as far away as 1980 while others see a start on it within four years.

By that time areas to the east may have developed with an added 100,000 or more persons living in such places as the Monte Vista Ranch, Jamul, Alpine and Dehesa and still another system of roads

Local Schools to Suffer 'Impact Funds' Cutback

WASHINGTON — Lemon Grove schools will receive $7,000 less in federal impact aid fund than $111,00 it was granted last year. La Mesa-Spring Valley District will get $273,000, dwn $24,000 from the $297,000 it got last year, according to Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego.

Most San Diego school systems will receive less, Van Deerlin said. The estimates are based on computer projections made by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. HEW made the survey at the request of Van Deerlin.

Van Deerlin pointed out that the figures provided him by the agency are not final. "They are based on average daily attendance figures for March, 1969, the latest available in the department's Washington headquarters," he said. "These enrollments could be substantially different by the time the new school year begins in September."

Ironically, Congress has just voted $536 million for the impact aid program, the largest such appropriation in 20 years. Throughout the country, however, most districts will have their payments reduced, because of a change in the formula for allocating the assistance.

Only one school system serving Van Deerlin's district will actually receive more money this year, according to the HEW estimates. That's the San Diego Unified School District, where last year's payment of $6,204,000 is expected to rise to about $6,356,000.

Losses in other districts will average about eight percent. The reductions result from a new method for calculating the aid. Last year payments for both category "A" children — whose parents both live and work on tax-exempt federal property — and for category "B" students — from families who only work for the government — were pegged at 77 percent. Under the new impact aid legislation, category "A" payments are increased to 90 percent while support for the category "B" youngsters is dropped to 65 percent.

The San Diego City Schools fared relatively well because they enroll a relatively large number of children in the "A" category. The other local systems enroll mostly category "B" youngsters.

Grossmont Board Votes To Accept $22.6 Million Budget For Next Year

Trustees of the Grossmont Union High School District met Monday night and approved $22.6 million budget for the 1970-71 school year that will include a 32.2-cent tax increase per $100 of assessment.

The budget shows an increase in spending over last year of about $3.4 million, up to approximately $22 million. The board anticipates an income of approximately $21 million, and will start the year with approximately $1.6 million.

Included in the budget is an increase in teachers' salaries of six per cent, the same increase for non-teaching employees, fringe benefit improvements, and new programs.

In other board action, the trustees voted to expell four more students for drug involvement, including three boys and a girl. The expulsions brought to 477 the number of students expelled since the policy came into effect three years ago.

Of the violations, three were off-campus infractions, and two of the cases involved dangerous drugs, while the others were for marijuana.

The students involved will be unable to attend any of the schools in the Grossmont District until they are re-admitted at a future board meeting.

Under the policy revisions, students who have been expelled can be re-admitted at any future board meeting. They also have the chance for re-habilitation under the revisions.

Empty Pools Public Health Official Asks

What may be a wading pool for your youngster today is apt to be a maternity ward for mosquitoes tomorrow if it is left standing idle.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of the County of San Diego Department of Public Health, yesterday urged parents to see that backyard plastic wading pools are emptied when not in use.

"The wading pools which people are buying for their backyards probably seem small and harmless," he said, "but they are big enough for mosquitoes to breed in by the hundreds."

The Health Department's Mosquito Control Service has been receiving a complaint a day for the past month about mosquito breeding that has been traced to backyard wading pools, Dr. Askew said. "Often the mosquito control men had to knock on a dozen doors before they could locate the place where mosquitoes were coming from.

"The public could help tremendously with this problem by simply dumping the water out of these wading pools when they aren't being used.'

SDG&E Raises Natural Gas Rates 7.67%

San Diego Gas and Electric Company was authorized to increase rates for natural gas to its customers by $4,652,700 a year.

In a decision which partially granted and partially denied the application, the State Public Utilities Commission with Commissioner A. W. Gatov dissenting, said the increase granted amounted to 7.67 percent increase and would produce a rate of return for the utility of 7.5 percent.

The utility had requested an increase of 11.8 percent, or $6,986,400 more a year to offset the increased cost of gas purchased from its supplier, Southern Counties Gas Company.

The annual increase to the average customer will amount to about $8.60. Under the rates requested by San Diego G&E, the increase would have been $11.5 a year for the average customer.

In addition to the rate increase, the PUC also approved provisions in the utility's tariffs for adjusting any further increases or reduction in the cost of gas granted to Southern Counties Gas Company, which are passed on to San Diego.

NEW DENTIST — Dr. Robert R. Faucher, 26, son of the L.G. Postmaster and Mrs. "Frenchy" Faucher, obtained his California dental license this week and has set p practice in Bonita at 4238 Bonita rd.

Rodeo, Beauty Pageant Set For Frontier Days

Spring Valley's Frontier Days get underway this month, and the Sweetwater Roping and Riding Association will sponsor a championship rodeo August 29 and 30 as the main attraction of the gala affair.

The International Rodeo Association has sanctioned the rodeo, which will include such events as a women's goat tying contest, and a special comedy mule act along with regular rodeo attractions.

The rodeo, set for 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. August 29, and 2 p.m. August 30 at the Sweetwater Arena, 6024 Quarry rd., Spring Valley, will feature the Frontier Days Queen, who will be picked in a beauty pageant August 15.

Entries for the contest to date include Jane Klein, Lemon Grove, Mary Macy, Spring Valley, and Patty Tilaro, Spring Valley, as well as a host of other beauties from other areas in the county.

August 2 is the last day that entries will be accepted. Applications can be obtained at the Rancherette, on Broadway in Lemon Grove, and at the arena.

The girls in the contest will compete for $650 in prizes, and entries in the rodeo will also receive cash awards.

Paper Starts 23rd Year Of Service

This issue of the Lemon Grove Review marks the beginning of the 23rd year of service for the publication.

The award winning community newspaper has received numerous honors for editorial excellence and community service.

Although there will be no birthday party, the newspaper will continue to strive for better service to Lemon Grove and Lemon Grove residents.

NEW BROCHURE — Don Holland, manager of the Campo-Conrad branch of the Bank of America, looks over a brand-new brochure which was developed and printed by the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce with lovely Janet Isley, Miss Spring Valley.
The Brochure, called "Spring Valley Beautiful", contains full color illustrations of some of Spring Valley's finer features.
A committee from the Chamber of Commerce raised funds for the brochure, which is expected to bring more home-owners and light industry to the community. Bank of America was one of the contributors to the fund.

$205 In Tapes Stolen From Tri-City TV

$205 worth of stereo tapes disappeared last week end from Tri-City T.V., 7769 Broadway, Lemon Grove, when three Negro men in their 20's came into the store during open hours.

One of the men was greeted upon entering the business by a salesman, and asked the salesman to show him some color television sets.

While the salesman was busy adjusting color and explaining terms to the man, the other two made their way to the stereo tape display.

Moments later, the two men near the tape rack left the store, and the other man stayed just a few moments later. After the men were gone, the tapes were discovered to be missing.

Unruh Functions Set

Jess Unruh, candidate for Governor, will make two appearances in San Diego Aug. 22.

He will attend a labor Rally and Box at noon at Carpenters Hall. That evening he will attend a cocktail buffet at the Rancho Santa Fe home of George Straza, president of Jet Air Corp.

LG Fire Report

It was a "light" week for the Lemon Grove Fire Department, as far as outside activities were concerned. There was one rescue call and two fires.

Suffering from a possible heart attack on July 28, George K. Odlum, 60, of 1463 San Altos, was administered oxygen. He was dead on arrival to a hospital.

Boys cleaning auto parts with gasoline in a patio at 7013 Mt. Vernon on July 29, was cause for a fire at that address. However, no damage was reported.

On July 31 there was a small grass fire on State property in the 6300 block and Freeway 94, but with no damage reported.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Please comment on the meaning and various methods of using "soler."

"Soler" means "to be accustomed." This is a slightly unusual verb. It fall into the "ue" class of verbs which means that the letter "o" is changed to "ue" when it is conjugated in the present tense. Thus the first person form would be "suelo" which means "I am accustomed to."

If you wish to ask someone "Are you accustomed to eating early?" you would say "Suele usted comer temprano?" If the desired response is "I am accustomed to eating early." It would be translated "Suelo comer temprano."

When "soler" is used in the first person plural form the "o" is not changed to "ue." This may be seen in "Solemos caminar." for "We are accustomed to walked." or "Solemos dormir tarde." for "We are accustomed to sleeping late."

If one wishes to describe an activity in the past with "soler," the most popular form is seen in "solia" (I was accustomed to). For eample "Yo solia bailar mucho." would mean "I was accustomed to dancing a lot." The same form may be used with "El solia cocinar." for "He was accustomed to cooking."

Practice phrases listed below reflect the use of "soler" (to be accustomed) in varying forms of the present and past tense. You may wish to practice saying these phrases with the aid of the recorded voice that leads you in a pattern practice when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Solia usted bailar mucho?" (soh-LEE-ah oo-STEHD bah-ee-LAHR MOO-choh) for "Were you accustomed to dancing a lot?"
Say "Yo no solia bailar mucho."
for "I was not accustomed to eating a lot."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Suele usted comer temprano?" (soo-EH-leh oo-STEHD koh-MEHR tehm-PRAHN-noh).
for "Are you accustomed to eating early?"
Say "Yo suelo comer temprano." (yoh soo-EH-loh koh-MEHR tehm-PRAHN-noh) for "I am accustomed to eating early."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Suelen caminar ellos?" (soo-EH-lehn kah-mee-NAHR EH-yohs)
for "Are they accustomed to walking?"
Say "No, pero solemos caminar." (noh PEH-roh soh-LEH-mohs kah-MEE-NAHR) for "No, but we are accustomed to walking."

Church Works To Restore Aeolian-Skinner Organ

The United Church of Christ Congregational, of Lemon Grove, has bought an Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ from the Unitarian Church of San Diego, and is in the process of putting it in playing condition.

The massive instruments, which has 1800 pipes, was purchased late last year, for $2,500, and was built in 1920.

Volunteers from the congregation have dismantled the organ and have installed new leather valves, at a cost of about $300 for materials. The actual work done could have cost as much as $8,000 if done commercially.

The volunteers are now in the process of building an organ-chamber, but funds are running low. Organist Frank Kueter said that the church is now offering certificates of stock to the congregation, for a charge of $5 each.

He said that if the sale goes well, construction on the instrument can be completed by December.

When the organ is completely restored, its value is expected to be well over $50,000, and it will be one of the finest organs in the San Diego area.

The young people at the United Church of Christ are working toward attaining a coffee house-lounge at the church, so that the teens at the church have a place to talk with each other, relax, listen to music, and discuss church activity.

Working with the church youth club, UYC, is a panel of young people and adults, making plans, and gathering necessary items for the lounge.

Items still needed are cushions, low tables, cloth to be dyed and draped, and money. The grand opening of the coffee house is set for Saturday night, from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. A car wash will be held Saturday morning as a fund-raiser at 10 a.m. at the American gas station at College and El Cajon.

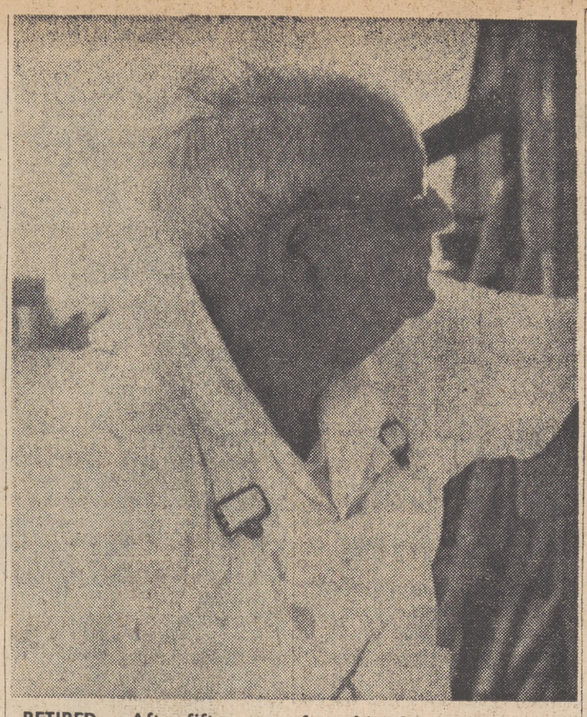
Three Lemon Grove students were among 3,000 undergraduate and graduate students who became candidates for degrees at the end of the spring semester at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Receiving bachelor of arts degrees from the University were Nancy Budzinsky, of 3225 Citrus st., Bethann Lyons, of 2358 Loma dr., and Joetta Tenison, of 1711 El Roy dr.

Budzinsky nailed down her degree in German, while Lyons picked up a combination social sciences certificate, and Tenison was awarded a degree in English.

NATO is an international organization involving 15 separate national bureaucracies.



RETIRED — After fifty years of combined military-civil service Early Patty, of 8244 Golden ave., Lemon Grove, retired last week. The 70-year old painter with the Navy Public Works Department enlisted in the Navy in 1919, where he remained until 1946, when he came to work for the Public Works department.

COMBO Divides Money Between Organizations

COMBO (Combined Arts and Education Council of San Diego County) gave checks totalling $79,000 to the eight cultural organizations declared COMBO beneficiaries for 1970.

This was the first disbursement of COMBO funds, Victor H. Krulak, COMBO president emphasized at a press conference in the San Diego Gas and Electric Co. Auditorium, and did not include the major gifts from the City of San Diego, the County of San Diego, and the City of Chula Vista.

Also at the conference, Christopher D. Sickels, auction chairman, announced the COMBO benefit auction will be a two-night event on Thursday, December 3, and Saturday, December 5, in the Conference Building in Balboa Park.

Thursday night will be informal with admission set at $1.50 for adults and $.50 for children. Saturday night will be a formal event with dinner limited to 1,000 guests. Tickets will be $150 a couple which includes $100 in script for the auction.

Sickels introduced Mrs. Robert Fadem and George Harris, his vice chairmen for the December event, and Neil Morgan who will assist with solicitation of gifts to be auctioned.

Checks were distributed to the presidents of the following organizations: San Diego Symphony Orchestra Association, $26,333.18; San Diego Opera Guild, $17,555.48; Old Globe Theatre, $14,044.40; La Jolla Museum of Art, $9,655.55; San Diego Ballet Association, $4,388.92; San Diego Junior Theatre, $877.85; San Diego Civic Youth Orchestra, $877.85; and Young Audiences, Inc., $877.85.

Walter J. DeBrunner, COMBO Executive Director, said the remaining $4,388.92 is being held in COMBO reserve account.

Funds will be distributed monthly, Krulak said. COMBO's goal — including the united drive and the auction — is $600,000.

Pledges to COMBO now total $400,000.

Youth For Decency Says Not All Youths Are Rioters

"Promising to 'sing out loud for God and country', the Heartland 'Youth for Decency' movement is trying to kill the image that all youth are rioters and dissenters and drug users. The group stands for the ideals for which the United States stand," according to Diane Evers, who spoke to the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club last week.

"Our feeling is that youth these days need a cause. Unfortunately, the cause most readily offered to them is that of drugs, dissention and rioting. They need a cause that is constructive and good," she said.

Ellis Evers, principal of one of the San Diego schools is the group's advisor. He told of some of the projects the group has participated in . . . sending gift packs and letters to servicemen in Vietnam, working in orphanages, adopting a Korean orphan and building a $3,000 memorial to the dead of the Vietnam war.

Their latest campaign is to get an American flag pin adopted as part of the uniform of all police officers. They have been writing to police chiefs all over the state and have already sold 4,000 pins. The pins are on sale for $1 a piece.

Their statement of principles says the fallowing: We believe in the ideals on which our country was founded and for which it stands today!

We appreciate our law enforcement officials for their effort to protect our individual right!

We support our fighting men in Vietnam, not necessarily because we approve of war, but primarily because they are our fathers, brothers, husbands and friends — they need and deserve our support!

We believe that even as God was such an inspiration to the writers of our Constitution, He should still play an important role in our American way of life.

Service Clubs Neutral in Political Frays

A small senatorial race flap was apparently quieted this week after a flurry of letters covered a misunderstanding between State Sen. James H. Mills, and his opponent, San Diego County Supervisor Henry Boney.

A press release quoted Boney in a speech at the El Centro Rotary club. Boney did not make the speech at the club. He made it at the Agriculture Irrigation District Assn. in Imperial.

Mills' administrative assistant registered a complaint. Boney's campaign director explained that Boney had been invited to the El Centro club but did not speak after Sen. Mills did not appear. Most service clubs observe a rule of neutrality in politics. Both candidates must appear or no speechmaking.

The release was sent out on the day of the meeting. Boney's party spent the night at El Centro and he did not advise his office of the cancellation until late the following day. Before the press could be informed of the cancellation, the story had already appeared in several newspapers.

It is not unusual for news releases to be issued to the press before the event. Rich Sewell, Boney's campaign director, issued apologies but in such matters, the pain is usually greater than the injury.

Raab Makes Dean's List At Northrup

George L. Gray of Spring Valley has been appointed special agent for Prudential Insurance Company's San Diego ordinary agency, manager Thomas C. Peek, CLU, announced.

Born in Lockhart, Texas, Gray graduated from Monte Vista High School and Grossmont College. During his four years with the U. S. Navy with a tour of duty in Vietnam, he earned several medals including a Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

Boy Scouts Set Drive To Recruit New Members

The Grossmont District Boy Scouts of America, which includes Spring Valley and Lemon Grove has set a goal to take in 1460 new boys by Dec. 31, 1970. The goal calls for 830 new Cubs, 486 new Boy Scouts, and 144 new Explorers.

At present the District has 2270 Cubs, 1914 Boy Scouts, and 356 Explorers.

Officers of the District point out that "School Night to Join Scouting" is scheduled for October 7, the night to enroll boys in Scouting.

It is not necessary for boys to wait until that special night to become a member of the Scouts. Many events are going on during the summer months which are of interest to the boys.

The Grossmont District has announced that E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, president of the San Diego Padres and Barry Knudson, president of the San Diego Council of the Boy Scouts of America, announced a Padre Scout Day for Thursday, Aug. 27. There will be a game at 7:30 p.m. at the San Diego Stadium to honor Scouting and the Padres will be playing the Chicago Cubs.

The event will also give Cubs, Scouts and Explorers an opportunity to invite new boys to join, since each Scout or Explorer that recruits a new boy can bring him to the game. He will be admitted free, as will all Cubs, Scouts and Explorers in uniform. All boys must be under adult unit leadership.

All adult leaders in uniform will be admitted free. Adults in street clothes supervising boys will be admitted free. All other adults pay a $1.50 admission price.

The unit leader of the unit in each district registering the most new boys at the Scout service center between Aug. 10 and Aug. 21, will be special guest of the Padres and will preferred seating.

The top ticket salesman of Scout Fair tickets will be honorary manager for the night. He will receive several Padre prizes.

Scouts and Scouters will enter the stadium through gates A and B and proceed up escalator B to the left Field Lodge Level.

Parking is available in Areas A and B. Scouters are asked to park in this area only. Buses must enter parking through Bus entrance on Rancho Mission road, off San Diego Mission road.

Shopping Tips

California Beef Council shopping tips to keep in mind for barbecue season: Buy steaks for broiling at least one inch thick — it's difficult to achieve a degree of rareness with a thin steak. Purchase oven roasts big enough — at least 4 pounds — if you like your beef rare or medium rare.

104 YEARS OLD — Mrs. Amanda Angle, who is living at the Spring Valley Sanitarium, celebrated her 104th birthday over the week end. She came to San Diego County in 1925, when "Spring Valley was just desert land," as she put it.

Spring Valley Resident Celebrates 104th Birthday

Mrs. Amanda C. Angle was the center of attraction Sunday at the Spring Valley Sanitarium, 9009 Campo rd., Spring Valley.

She was joined by friends and relatives in celebration of her 104th birthday.

James D. Seale, field representative of the El Cajon Social Security Office, presented Mrs. Angle with a personal birthday greeting from Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of the Social Security Administration.

Mrs. Angle was born in Putnam County, Indiana, August 2, 1866. She grew up in west Virginia and married Dave Angle in 1885 at St. Albans, W. Va.

In 1890 she, her husband and one child came West and lived in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona before arriving in San Diego in 1925. She has been a resident of San Diego County since then. Spring Valley was just desert land then, she said.

She received social security benefits as the wife of Dave Angle from December 1950 until he passed away in 1961, and has received widow's benefits since.

She said that she didn't realize that she was growing old until she was 99, then she "woke up." She attributes her long life to "clean living and hard work."

Mrs. Angle raised 10 children. Five of them are still living. They are Bruce and Harry Angle of San Diego, Fred Angle of Spring Valley, Mrs. Ellis Pine of Vista, and Mrs. Paul Lunsford of Glendale.

She has 10 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and 9 great-great-grandchildren.

Special Drama On Tap At Old Globe Monday

Actors Anthony Zerbe and Roscoe Lee Browne will perform in a special dramatic presentation at the Old Globe Theatre. The single performance, entitled "Behind the Broken Words," will be staged Monday at 8:3 p.m.

Browne and Zerbe have taken words from the printed page and through their craft as actors choreographed an evening of poems, songs and fragments of plays. With a rapport between the two actors, words flash back and forth with precision and timing, building the rhythms of "broken words" to attain an intimate dialogue with an audience.

"Behind the Broken Words" is a celebration of language, thoughts and emotions people have when they are alone with their souls. The range of authors included in the dramatic event are James Agee, W. H. Auden, E. E. Cummings, Lawrence Ferlinghetti, Jean Giraudoux, Leroi Jones, Edna St. Vincent Millay, Alfred de Musset, Edmond Rostand, Dylan Thomas, E. B. White, Richard Wright, William Butler Yeats and others.

Kinetic Art Screens Last Show Today

Grossmont College will conclude its popular "Kinetic Arts" series when the sixth program is screened at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., today in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

The final program in the series will feature a diverse collection of creative cinema that will include dramatic, animated, abstract and experimental cinematic concepts.

The program will include "Momentum," produced by Jordan Belson, American Film Institute. Using a new technique of television generated color, Belson moves out into unchartable time. "A Rough Sketch for a Proposed Film Dealing with the Powers of Ten and the Relatives Size of Things in the Universe" by Charles Eames, another far-out film goes beyond the outer galaxies down to man and into the nucleus of the atom to portray kinetic experience.

Britisher George Dunning, director of "Yellow Submarine" creates "The Chair," a new animated film. Pascal Aubier, Paris, has produced "Arthur, Arthur" to explore the further reaches of unreality.

Aubier manages to give great depth to what at first would seem to be merely a one dimensional story idea. Other films from Tokyo, Prague and Paris will complete this international concept of Cinema.

Copley, Zoo's Gorilla Get Together Again For Tenth Anniversary

Publisher James S. Copley visited the San Diego Zoo for a tenth-anniversary celebration with a gorilla he donated to the zoo a decade ago.

Copley, publisher of the San Diego Union and Evening Tribune, was reunited last week with "Trib" lowland gorilla, who arrived at the San Diego Zoo from Africa on July 30, 1960. At that time, his age was estimated at one year.

In honor of the event, a special cake in the form of a newspaper was prepared for Trib, along with more gorilla-like fare — bananas and grapes. Copley and zoo director Dr. Charles R. Schroeder presented the gifts of cake and fruit to Trib.

CENTER OF ATTENTION — Pretty Charlene Fowler, 16, of 2322 Peppermint ln., Lemon Grove, clowns it up with other members of the cast in Monte Vista's production of "The Boyfriend." Others in the scene are, from left, Barry Ebersole, Dave Myers, Rich Herzog, Kris Rao, Ted Jones, and Ernie Dodd. The play is set for the last production tonight at 8 p.m.

"How To Stop AWar" Is Play At Mount Miguel High School

The drama department at Mount Miguel High School will stage a play in the school auditorium, opening tonight at 8 p.m., and running through Saturday night.

"How to Stop a War by Really Trying" is a musical satire on everything in today's society from war, the women's liberation movement, and the draft, to mass media.

The production, which was re-written from a Greek play, "Lysistrata," by members of the summer drama workshop at Mount Miguel, will feature a cast of 50, and music by volunteer members of the Mount Miguel orchestra and other persons interested.

"The costumes are what we call Greek mini," pointed out instructor John Adams, who is also the instructor for drama during the regular school year at the Spring Valley school.

The male lead of Sid will be played by Rick Luiz, and the female lead of Liz will be portrayed by Toni Previtti. Others in the cast include Bonnie Barth, William Beaver, Richard Block, Kathy Brunkow, Noel Christianson, Linda Clark, Danial Cody, Diana Cody, Jan Crockett, and Amy Degenhart.

Music for the production has been borrowed from Broadway plays, with the lyrics changed here and there to fit the script, according to Ted Adams, who is lending a hand in the production. He also noted that "In some cases the music is original."

Curtain time for the play will be 8 p.m. all three nights, and admission is $1.

'Boy Friend' Ends Run Tonight At Monte Vista

"The Boy Friend," a musical comedy of the 1920's, will be represented at 8 p.m. tonight in the Monte Vista High School Gymnasium, as the project of the summer school dramatics club ends a four-night run.

The musical, set in Roaring Twenties France, spoofs the antics of aristocratic English students of Madame Dubonnet's exclusive finishing school, whose "duty" it is to become "perfect young ladies" and, if possible, snare a rich beau in the process. A prim French maid and delightfully dirty old man add spice.

The cast includes Dawn Whittle, playing Polly; Jeff Muhleman as Tony, Kathy Callahan as Maisie, Bruce Haustein as Bobby, Cindy Zemlick as Hortense, Valerie Bratcher as Madame Dubonnet, Jim Donohue as Percival, Paul Briggs as Lord Brockhurst, and Vickie Radek as Lady Brockhurst.

"Perfect young ladies" and their boyfriends are Heidi Lasley and David Meyers, Debbie Bacheller and Kris Rao, Glenda Kimball and Ted Jones, and Sally Bacheller and Richard Herzog.

The chorus is composed of Ernie Dodd, Charlene Fowler, Nancy Relaford, Becky Santos, Barry Ebersole, Lynn Millovich, and Carol Lusitana.

Drama Department Head Ron Ray is directing; music will be provided by the Monte Vista Stage Band under the baton of Orchestra leader Monte Snyder.

M.V. Boosters Start Concession Stand At School

The Monte Vista Boosters Club broke ground for a new concession stand and restroom facility at the Monte Vista stadium yesterday morning.

The Booster Club is made up of a number of Spring Valley residents who have raised over the years nearly $180,000 for the Monte Vista stadium, lights, etc. This is a continuation of their project.

L.M.-S.V. Tax Rises 86 Cents Over Last Year

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School Board of Trustees met Monday night and passed a $12 million budget, which includes a six per cent pay increase to teachers and an 86-cent increase in taxes per $100 assessment.

The 1970 budget shows an increase in expenditure of $1.2 million over last year's budget, and also includes a five per cent increase in wages for classified employees.

Myrtle Sheehan, chairman of the teachers negotiating council, presented a request at the meeting for added insurance coverage for teachers, but the request was ignored by the trustees.

The item, which would cost the district $300 per year per teacher instead of the present $100 per teacher, was passed over entirely by the board.

Under salary increases, however, teachers will be paid between $420 and $840 more per year. The new rate for beginning teachers is $7,420 per year, while the maximum is set at $14,480.

Flies – Dirty And Dangerous

Of all the insects in the world, Musca Domestica is probably man's greatest enemy.

You know him as the common housefly — but maybe you don't know just how serious a health threat he really is, and may be inclined to take him for granted.

Flies may spread dysentery, summer or infant diarrhea, typhoid fever, tuberculoisis, trachoma. For example, bacillary dysentery — a disease of the intestines — is more prevalent in the summer when the fly population is the greatest.

It has been proven that fly-contaminated milk may lead to fatal cases of infant diarrhea. Summer or infant diarrhea occurs principally under crowded, unhygienic conditions during hot weather when foods can be easily contaminated by flies.

The common housefly can spread typhoid fever by picking up the grem from unsanitary toilet facilities used by a victim of the disease or an unsuspecting "healthy" carrier.

BRIGADOON— Members of the cast of "Brigadoon", Grossmont College's summer production, rehearse their lines, as Paul Stephens works on set for the fantasy. Neal Lovins will play Anderson, who holds Diane Kucula's hand.

'Brigadoon' To Start Grossmont Run Tonight

After weeks of work by drama students in Grossmont College's summer session, the setting and costumes for the outdoor production of "Brigadoon" are complete. Scheduled to be presented tonight through August 15, "Brigadoon" will be performed each evening at 8:30 in Grossmont College's "theatre under the stars."

"Brigadoon" will be performed by the combined music and drama departments of the college with the production designed and directed by James W. Baker.

Costumes will be designed and constructed by Clark G. Mires and students of his costuming class. The student orchestra and choral group will be under the direction of Charles W. MacLeod. Choreography will be by Trina Greig.

The 72-member cast will perform in the mystical village of Brigadoon, a tiny hamlet in the highlands of Scotland. Existing only one day in every 100 years, Brigadoon is a difficult place to find.

Only those who love someone deeply enough to leave everything and everyone they have ever known behind can stay in Brigadoon. This is the premise on which Lerner and Loewe created their magical musical.

The public is invited to enjoy this lighthearted musica under the stars. The price of admission is $1.50. Reservations may be obtained by contacting the drama department at Grossmont College.

Bill Creates Concren

Serious concern about provisions of the new state welfare reform bill that "will block effective prosecution of fraud cases" has been voiced by the State Social Welfare Board.

Board Chairman Robert E. Mitchell of Norwalk said he and members of his advisory group oppose segments of the bill that "appear to give suspected welfare cheaters a list of alternatives and privileges not available to the suspects in other kinds of criminal actions, will be costly for counties to administer, and in some cases could involve innocent recipients in restitution problems that were not their fault to begin with."

The "restitution provisions" to which the Board objects will require counties to give written notification to persons who have received aid to which they are not entitled, and that they be offered the opportunity to make "reasonable" restitution in terms of their economic circumstances.

Homeowners Need Coverage

If a good neighbor gets a bad injury on your property, he may look at you through money-colored glasses and begin a liability suit. And you might end up holding the bag — unless you also are holding an insurance policy that protects you.

Suppose a visitor steps or a negligently-placed skate and suddenly embarks on an impromptu excursion climxed by a nose dive that leaves you up to your neck in a lawsuit.

Or suppose your dog forgets where he buried his bone and romps off to put the bite on somebody's leg. Or your cat stops purring and starts clawing, and somebody's left lacerated.

These are suppositions. This is for real: When such incidents, and many similar ones occur, whether on or off your property, if you have personal liability insurance your insurance company pays for your legal defense whether or not you are liable. If you are adjudged liable, your insurance company pays your penalty up to the limit of your policy.

Personal liability coverage is included in your homeowners policy. It's an effective asbestos shield to keep you from getting financially burned when a personal liability lawsuit flares up.

College In House Hunt For Students

Locating adequate housing for Southwestern College students continues to be a critical issue, according to Wayne Allen, Dean of Student Activities.

"Our enrollment continues to increase every year, so we need to find housing for the additional students," Allen stated.

He said many of the students are self-supporting, a considerable number are married, so the housing needs vary from a quiet room in a private residence to a house or apartment.

Rentals should be a economical as possible, as most students are on a limited income basis. Single students prefer rooms with enough furniture to provide a place to study.

The student business office at the College provides a clearing house for rentals, and local homeowners who have rentals, are encouraged to list their rental with the ASO office.

Wheel Chair Students Get Special Bus

Travelling to school by bus isn't easy if you are in a wheelchair, but it will much more comfortable this year for students who attend a class for the physically handicapped, centered at Granite Hills High School, who are confined to wheelchairs and depend on bus transportation to get to school.

The Governing Board Monday approved leasing of two specially equipped busses which the students helped design, to haul the students next year.

Recently when Grossmont District school officials were considering the type of bus to be leased to transport these students, four boys in the class came up with some suggestions.

The first problem tackled was getting students on and off the bus. The boys mentioned two possibilities, a ramp with an electric or manuel winch, or a hydraulic lift. The lift was their first choice, although the ramp-winch combination "probably would be a little cheaper," said the boys.

Once aboard the bus another problem arises. "Riding in a bus in a wheelchair isn't much diffent than being in a regular seat except the wheelchair jerks every once in a while," Bill commented. The boys came up with an answer for that — lock the front and back wheels to the floor.

With the wheechair locked down the next consideration was the student. "If you only have the wheels fastened to the floor the wheelchair won't go anywhere but we will if the bus stops suddenly," Bill said.

"So it's necessary to have seat belts on the wheelchair as well as having the chairs held down," Bill said.

In pooling together all of their recommendations the boys first choice was a bus with a hydraulic lift, raised roof, floor clamps, seat belts, and a radio with a rear speaker.

The busses approved for lease by the Governing Board will be equipped with a hydraulic lift, floor clamps, seat belts, and the radio with the rear speaker. A vehicle with a raised roof has not been approved by the State for school transportation.

The Board commended the boys on their fine work and suggestions.

'Short-Course' Chargers Face Cowboys Saturday

The San Diego Chargers engage the Dallas Cowboys in the opening pre-season game of 1970 at San Diego Stadium Saturday night. Kickoff is 8 p.m.

Having received summer school diplomas from Patrick Henry High school and a five-day cram course at UC Irvine, the Chargers will take their Masters' examination against the powerful Cowboys.

It will be the first contest ever between San Diego and Dallas, a pair of high-explosive teams.

Dallas led the National League in total offense in 1969. San Diego was No. 2 in offense in the American League.

The game will be broadcast by KDEO and the Charger network with Stu Nahan and Emil Karas announcers. The new Charlie Waller show is aired by KDEO at 7:20 p.m. Pre-game and halftime entertainment will be supplied by the Marching Chargers.

San Diego makes its pre-season debut as a member of the American Conference of the NFL with a new look at the top. After leading the Chargers to victories in their last four games of 1969, Waller begins his first full year as head coach.

Waller is concerned particularly with the ability of the Charger defense to cope with the slick, sophisticated offense of the Cowboys. The Chargers will see few more accomplished attackers than Dallas' array of quarterbacks Craig Morton and Roger Staubach, receivers "Bullet" Bob Hayes, Lance Rentzel and Pettis Norman and running backs Calvin Hill, NFL "Rookie of the Year" in 1969, and Walt Garrison.

Dallas also has a pair of rookie touchdown threats in running back Duane Thomas, No. 1 draft choice from West Texas State, and swift little receiver Margene Adkins, who caught 56 passes in Canada last year.

San Diego's defensive starters return intact from last season, but there will be competition at several positions.

The No. 1 battle looms at middle linebacker where Bob Babich, the heralded No. 1 draft choice of 1969 who missed last season because of knee surgery, will challenge co-captain Rick Redman. The loser probably will shift to the outside to join with Pete Barnes, Jeff Staggs and Bob Bruggers.

The veteran rush line of ends Steve DeLong and Bob Briggs and tackles Russ Washington and Ron Billingsley will have to turn back the bids of impressive rookies Joe Owens and Tom Williams and veteran Andy Rice, acquired from the Cincinnati Bengals.

The defensive backfield has two promising newcomers, Randy Beverly from the New York Jets, and rookie Chris Fletcher. They will contest for the positions held by cornerbacks Bobby Howard and Joe Beauchamp. Shifting to safety to join Jim Hill is Speedy Duncan.

San Diego is ready to start its veteran offensive unit of John Hadl at quarterback, Dickie Post and Brad Hubbert at running backs; Garrison and Willie Frazier at ends; Terry Owens and Gene Ferguson at tackles, Walt Sweeney and Jim Schmedding at guards and Sam Gruneisen at center.

But Waller plans to take a good look Saturday night at such top challengers as running backs Ron Sayers and rookie Pettus Farrar, rookie receivers Walker Gillette, Billy Parks and Howard Gravelle and linemen Bill Lenkaitis, Bob Wells and rookie Bill Maddox.

Waller said Tuesday that Gillette "has the makings of a 'super-star'".

"WOULD YOU BELIEVE A HOLE IN SIX?" — Don Adams, famed sleuth of teevee's "Get Smart", is honorary chairman of the Ninth annual Comedians' Golf Classic to be played at the Carlton Oaks Country Club Sept. 18 and 19 in nearby Santee.
Comedian Dick Martin is chairman of the National Pro-Am Team Championship.
Practice Round Sweepstakes, Pairing Party and Buffet will be Sept. 17. Shotgun morning tee-off for amateurs with celebrities at the tee at 1 p.m. will permit amateurs to join the gallery on Sept. 18. Classic Bash and Auction will be at 8 p.m. on Sept. 19, the second round and Mulligan Event competition will be played. A jam session is scheduled for 4:30 p.m. at Carlton Oaks with a cocktail reception at 7 p.m. at Town & Country Hotel, followed by the Mulligan Awards Dinner.
Proceeds from the tournament will provide a therapeutic swimming pool for all San Diego handicapped children. It will be built at Revere Development Center.
Also participating in the golf classic will be Jack Lemmon, Peter Lind Hayes, Don Rickles and other top comedians.
Tickets for the various events and for the gallery will go on sale this week at Carlton Oaks.

Herb Crawford Wins Ring Free Gold Helmet

Herb Crawford, of Spring Valley, has been named a winner of the Macmillan Ring-Free Motor Oil Gold Helmet Award for outstanding performance in auto racing.

Leonard F. Marino, Ring-Free's manager of branded products, said "Crawford is one of a select group of racing drivers throughout the country to be singled out for achieving a high degree of performance in auto racing."

Macmillan Ring-Free Oil instituted the program four years ago to provide encouragement and recognition for young racing drivers, drivers who have shown outstanding skills in competition racing and who may become tomorrow's champions.

Crawford, who resides at 8407 Garwood ct., will receive the famed Ring-Free Gold Racing Helmet.

ROCKETTE — Gail Wozniak, 18, a June graduate of Monte Vista, has been named head cheerleader of the San Diego Rockets. She lives as 4215 Bobbi lane.
Two other local girls are on the cheering squad. They are Annette Jones, and Patti Larabee, both 18, and both live in Spring Valley. The three beauties were among 15 chosen to represent the Rockets this season. They were chosen from a total of 50 finalists.

"Mr. Cool" Grabs First, As Hale Can't Break Second-Place Habit

Russ Bullen, of Bonita, and Ed Hale, of Lemon Grove, have gotten into a habit at Cajon Speedway, as "Mr. Cool" keeps getting the checkered flag, and "Smilin' Ed" keeps coming in second.

In last week's super stock action at the speedway, it was Bullen nailing down the win in the thirty-lap main event just ahead of the Lemon Grove leadfoot, to hold onto a 400-point lead in the point standings over second place Hale.

With ten more racing nights left, John Dineen clings to a 45 point lead over Spring Valley's Pat McIntyre for third place, and Jim Hitt, of Lemon Grove, is bearing down on Bob Chambers for fifth place.

Cactus Henyan, of Jamul, broke into the top ten ten last week.

In other racing action, Jim Osborne, who has one main event win this year, is still trying to make it to the coveted top ten. Osborne, who lives in Brookside, has been picking up points every week, and could crash the top ten with a good night at the speedway.

Looking to modified action, Hale is only 55 points in back of Dick Fries in the points race, as the Lemon Grove driver rides in fifth place. Spring Valley's Roger Tilton is trying to catch Jack Clegg for the sixth spot.

In figure eight racing, Dean Erwin, a former Lemon Grove driver who moved to El Cajon, found the going a little tough last week, as Ed Hale picked up his third main event win. Smilin' Ed, who led most of the night, managed to stay clear of trouble at the "X", to move in on point-leader Erwin.

More racing action is set for this week-end, as Smilin Ed tries to break his second-place habit, Pat McIntyre tries to nail down his first main-event win, Jim Osborne shoots for the top ten, and Dean Erwin tries to hold his lead in figure-eight racing.

On Saturday night, the super stocks and limiteds roar into action, with a special powder puff derby, featuring lady drivers bashing fenders in a 10-lap affair. Qualifying is at 6:30 p.m., and the first race gets underway at 8 p.m.

Pads To Test Braves' Bats Tomorrow Night

The Padres and the Atlanta Braves, homer-happy whenever they meet, clash in a bargain twi-night doubleheader tomorrow at San Diego Stadium. The teams conclude their three-game series with a single contest Sunday afternoon, which ends a seven-game homestand for the Padres.

The twi-night bash commences at 6 p.m. and Sunday's 1 p.m. argument is a Little Swinger date.

The Padres and the Braves have clashed on nine previous occasions this season and have assaulted each other's pitching staffs for a total of 28 home runs.

That's better than three homers a game, and the honors are even with each club making 14.

The Padres, however, have hit only one of their 14 at San Diego Stadium, that being delivered in the season's opening game by Nate Colbert.

But in Atlanta, the Padres have rapped 133 homers in 6 games, including one four-homer output on July 3.

Clarence Gaston and Colbert each have homered four times against Atlanta. For the Braves, Mike Lum banged three homers in the July 3 game, Rico Carty has hit four and Orlando Cepeda three against Padre pitching.

Miguel Drops From Tourney After Losses

Mount Miguel's American Legion baseball team lost to Madison, beat Colina Del Sol, and lost again to Madison to be eliminated from the District 22 playoffs.

In the opening game last Thursday, the Matadors seemed to hit everything that came their way, but all of the solid belts landed in the gloves of the opposition. By the time the twelfth inning rolled around, the Miguelmen found themselves on the short end of a 3-2 score.

"We hit line shots right at 'em," Mount Miguel coach Duane Freeman remarked after the contest. "We just couldn't find the holes."

The Miguel pitching looked sharp in the game, but three errors, including two by catcher Mike Bruner, opened the gate for the Warhawks. Starting pitcher Tom Urban lasted 7⅓ innings for Miguel, and left with a 2-2 tie.

Bob Pennel came on in the eighth frame, and pitched fine ball until the decisive twelfth, when the Warhawks scored a run to win it.

On Friday, the Matadors made it past the Colina Del Sol team, but faced Madison again on Saturday.

In that one, Madison overpowered the Miguel team, 10-1. The only bright spot in the contest for Mount Miguel was a bases-empty home run by Mark Schuff in the second inning, which gave Miguel a brief lead.

Area Skaters In Nationals This Week

A group of roller skaters from the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove area are in Lincoln, Nebraska, this week, participating in the American Roller Skating Championships, which got underway yesterday.

The skaters, sponsored by Skyline Rollarena, range in age from 12-year-old Keri Heffner to 21-year-old Nick Di Pinto.

Heading the list of local athletes in the competition are Moana Brigham, 16, who took first place in the Southwest Championships for her work in Ladies Intermediate Freestyle, Danny Littel, 16, who won two awards in the Southwest events, one for Novice dance, and one for freestyle, along with Nick Di Pinto, who also picked up awards in those categories.

Others who will be out for honors at the national events are Ellie Ringeisen, 19, a figure skater, Kerri Hefner, 12, in junior freestyle, Chris Ringeisen, 18, in speed and dance, and Mark Koehler, in freestyle.

The normal life of a five dollar bill is less than a year.

Rotary Sets Charger Film For Friday Meet

The weekly luncheon-meeting of the Spring Valley Rotary Club will be Friday at 12:10 p.m. in the Ox Bow Inn on Campo rd. in the Casa de Oro area of Spring Valley.

All Rotarians are welcome, says president Don Tarr. The program will be a San Diego Chargers film and prospects of the coming season.

County Team Favored Over City In All Star Contest Tomorrow

Gordon Nash, at 35, is the most successful high school basketball coach in San Diego County history.

Tomorrow night he will gun for still another triumph — this time as coach of the County team that will face the top graduated seniors from City schools in the third annual City-County All-Star basketball game, sponsored by the Breitbard Athletic Foundation.

Game time is 8:30 at Grossmont College, and will be preceded by the Summer League championship game at 7.

The County is still a slender favorite despite the absence of injured All-American, Bill Walton, who split open his left index finger in a County practice session last week, and will not participate.

Nash, who in three years as head coach at Helix has won two CIF championships and finished runnerup the third, has a record unmatched in area history.

To his credit are 83 wins and 12 losses, a slightly unbelievable winning percentage of .874. Only time will tell if he will be able to uphold that mark, but the fact remains that the next best percentage ever recorded was .829, by John Kovac in three seasons at Coronado.

Charlie Hampton turned in a .779 percentage (221-65) in 11 seasons at Hoover.

Nash has coached the Highlanders to the CIF finals all three of his years at Helix and has won two Unlimited Division championships in the Kiwanis Basketball Tournament.

Last season his Helix team went 33-0, ran its winning streak to 49 and earned the Scots the No. 1 ranking in the state of California by Imperial Sports Syndicate.

One reason Helix fared so well, of course, was Walton, a consensus first-team All-American.

Nash still is well equipped, however, since the County team boasts two players who were chosen among the top five in the area last year.

Paul Halupa of Bonita Vista, a 5-foot, 10-inch guard scored more points in his high school career than any player in county history.

His total of 1,982 broke by more than 200 points the former record of 1,766 by Oscar Foster of San Diego High.

In his last two years at Bonita Vista, Halupa scored 718 and 689 points and averaged 28.7 and 27.5, respectively.

Another County star, Elias Delgadillo of Castle Park, also was named to last year's all-CIF first team. Delgadillo, a rugged 6-foot, 6-inch center-forward, scored 689 points last year and 1,612 in three years as a Trojan.

Tickets can still be purchased from players in the Pepsi Summer League, at the Hall of Champions in Balboa Park and at Grossmont College the night of the game.

Lemon Grove Little League Drops Tournament Opener

Lemon Grove's Little League express was derailed on the Twin Hills baseball field by a strong Southeastern squad last week, putting local hopes for a national title in mothballs for another year.

Excellent pitching and some long ball hitting by the Southeastern nine upended Lemon Grove, 5-3, in the semi-finals of the District 42 championships. Southeastern went on to defeat South Bay, 9-2, in the finals.

Manager Wally Keogh's outfit scrambled to a 3-2 lead after 3½ innings but couldn't contain a team that was to collect ten hits including two home runs.

Lemon Grove scored in the third inning on a walk to Steve Phillips and a two out single by Kevin Stafford. They added their final two in the fourth on a walk to Greg Maxwell, a fielder's choice by Mike Smith and singles by Phillips and Bob Osberg.

Smith and Dean Pudsey shared mound duties with Smith getting the loss.

In a consolation battle for third place, Lemon Grove ran afoul of an Imperial Beach team and was edged, 3-1. Stafford singled twice and drove in Ken Sperla for the only tally.

David Taluban went the route and gave up only five hits, striking out six and walking three, but his mates were held to only two singles, both by Stafford.

Bikes Will Roar To Benefit Retarded School Aug. 15

South Bay Speedway, near Brown Field, will be the scene of a motorcycle race August 16, to benefit Starlight Center, a school for retarded children.

Starlight Center, the only school of its kind in the South Bay area, presently houses fifteen youn adult students, but plans are in effect for a new building that will house 50 more students.

Ground breaking ceremonies for the building are scheduled for September 15.

The Mesa Motorcycle Club is sponsoring the race, which will be run on a 5/8 mile track that includes a jump in the middle of a series of sharp turns, providing plenty of action, and often a bruise or two.

Races will be separated into divisions for everyone from powder puffers — lady drivers — to open experts, featuring bikes over 500 cc.

A special mini-bike race will be held in the program, which starts with practice runs at 10 a.m. In the mini-biker class, will be such celebrities as Boots Rebel, from KSON radio, Rod Page, from KSDO, and Harry Scarborough, of KGB.

They will be in fierce competition with the likes of Tom Hamilton, mayor of Chula Vista, Kyle Morgan, mayor of National City, and Imperial Beach's mayor, Bert Stites.

Also scheduled for the race day is a "wheelie contest", where contestants ride with their front wheels high in the air for distances of up to 300 feet.

Chambers Brothers Set Sports Arena Concert

By Lynn Jones

Coming Sunday, to the San Diego Sports Arena, is a five-hour rock concert starting at 3 p.m. featuring the Chambers Brothers.

Willie, George, Lester and Joe make up the brothers, along with drummer Brian Keenan as the fifth member. This popular group is known for its explosive blend of gospel, rock and blues as proven by their gold record with Columbia, "The Time Has Come", and their most recent album, "Love, Peace & Happiness."

The Chambers Brothers are also well-known for originating some of their material such as "Do Your Thing" and "A New Time — A New Day." The Brothers have shown their talents with a style that has given them sellouts at their concerts, at major clubs, and at many discotheques across the country.

All tickets are $4 in advance and are available at the Sports Arena Box Office only.

Coming to the Civic Theatre Auditorium on Monday night, August 10, is the Broadway musical comedy "Zorba".

"Zorba" will be playing through Saturday, August 15 with performances nightly at 8:30 p.m. and matinees Wednesday and Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

John Raitt, Barbara Baxley and Chita Rivera will head the cast list. Gary Krawford and Marsha Tamaroff will also be featured in a big cast of song-and-dance and dramatic talent bringing to a lilting and lusty life the characters of the famous novel by Nikos Kazantzakis "Zorba the Greek."

"Zorba" is the Goliath of the traveling attracions. Its massive scenic effects designed by prize-winner Boris Aronson appear exactly as presented in the New York engagement which was curtailed after eight months when its two top stars became ill. Producer Prince intends to resume the Broadway run of this musical when it has completed its assignment as Flagship attraction for the Civic Light Opera in Los Angeles and San Francisco this summer, playing prime-time cities to and from California.

Barbara Baxley, lately of "Plaza Suite," has been starred and featured in numerous Broadway and regional attractions while Chita Rivera has set fire to stages of New York, London and countless American cities in such important hits as "West Side Story," "Bye Bye Birdie," "Can Can" and her recent "Sweet Charity" starring vehicle.

Tickets for the August 10 through August 15 performances of "Zorba" may be obtained from the Civic Theatre Box Office, 3rd and B streets, (reservations 236-6510), all Highlander Mens Stores and Metro Ticket Agencies.

Opening at the Unicorn Cinema, 7456 La Jolla blvd., La Jolla, Calif., August 8, are two movies. These two movies will be playing through the 11th.

Benefit Concert Due Here At End Of Month

Kenny Rogers and The First Edition will appear with soul singer Lou Rawls, August 29, at 8:30 p.m., in the Convention Hall, Community Concourse.

"Lou Rawls and His Friends," a benefit for the Home of Guiding Hands, will feature others from the entertainment field including comedian Sandy Baron.

The music of Kenny Rogers and The First Edition reflects the heart and mind of today with a blend of folk, blues, jazz, hard rock and the classics. Their first hit was "Just Dropped In To See What Condition My Condition Was In."

Local Boy Gets First Big Role With Starlight Musical "Mame"

Eleven-year-old Scott Del Nero, of Spring Valley, has been cast in the role of Patrick Dennis, the 10-year-old orphaned nephew bequeathed to Mame in the Starlight Musicals at the Zoo production of "Mame" which opens in the San Diego Zoo's Wegeforth Bowl tonight.

He replaces Daniel Arden, previously announced for the role.

"When young Daniel Arden auditioned for us a few months ago," said Gordon Hilker, Director of United States International University's Center for the Performing Arts, which is producing the musicals, "he was perfect for the part and we were delighted to sign him up.

"But when he showed up for rehearsals two weeks ago, we found that he had played a trick on us. He had grown four inches. He would have been the tallest 10-year-old in theatrical history.

"Fortunately, we've found an equally talented youngster in Scott Del Nero — an 11-year-old who looks 10 and acts as well as if he were 25."

Scott Del Nero

When young Arden was told of the decision to recast the role, he smiled and shrugged, "Well, I guess that's show business."

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Del Nero of 3820 Pinto pl., Spring Valley. He is a native San Diegan and recently completed the sixth grade at Casa de Oro Elementary School.

In 1966 he was signed in Hollywood by Screen Artists Agency to do television commercials.

Recently Scott played the role of Sir Joseph in a school production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore."

An interesting story is connected with the "H.M.S. Pinafore" production. It seems that young Scott had been riding a mini bike a few days before the play was staged, and he showed up at rehearsal with cuts and bruises all over his mouth and nose.

His mother suggested a mustache be included in his costume, to hide the mishap, but there was still a question of whether or not the young actor could handle the speaking and singing parts of the demanding lead role.

But according to Scott, and a good many actors in the profession, the show must go on. It did, and despite not being able to smile as much as he usually does, Scott performed the play in excellent tradition.

He is a top student in school with interesting ranging from photography to building and rebuilding gasoline engines. Among his talents he lists piano and singing.

The Del Neros are a musical family. Scott's mother is a concert pianist; his father plays saxophone and clarinet. His three sisters sing and study ballet and tap dancing.

In 1969 the entire family sang with a choral group and band at San Diego Stadium in a televised Christmas tribute to the servicemen in Vietnam.

"Mame," running Aug. 6-16, is the last of the three musicals being presented in Wegeforth Bowl for the so far record-breaking 1970 season of Musicals at the Zoo. It was preceded by "Man of La Mancha," July 9-19, and "Oklahoma!", which opened July 23 and ran through Aug. 2.

"Mame" is based on the novel by Patrick Dennis and the play "Anutie Mame," by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, who also wrote the musical, with music and lyrics by Jerry Herman.

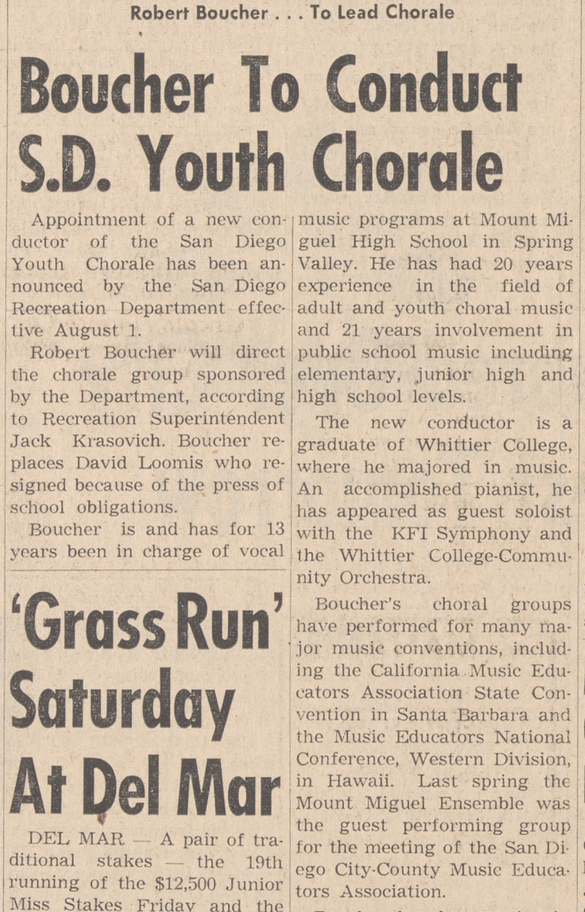
Broadway and Hollywood star Betty McGuire plays the title role, with Lorna Thayer as Mame's actress-friend Vera Charles, and Myra de Groot as the unforgettable secretary, Agnes Gooch. John Ellsworth plays Mr. Babcock, the banker, and Russ Tilford is cast as Beauregard Burnside.



Robert Boucher . . . To Lead Chorale

Boucher To Conduct S.D. Youth Chorale

Appointment of a new conductor of the San Diego Youth Chorale has been announced by the San Diego Recreation Department effective August 1.

Robert Boucher will direct the chorale group sponsored by the Department, according to Recreation Superintendent Jack Krasovich. Boucher replaces David Loomis who resigned because of the press of school obligations.

Boucher is and has for 13 years been in charge of vocal music programs at Mount Miguel High School in Spring Valley. He has had 20 years experience in the field of adult and youth choral music and 21 years involvement in public school music including elementary, junior high and high school levels.

The new conductor is a graduate of Whittier College, where he majored in music. An accomplished pianist, he has appeared as guest soloist with the KFI Symphony and the Whittier College-Community Orchestra.

Boucher's choral groups have performed for many major music conventions, including the California Music Educators Association State Convention in Santa Barbara and the Music Educators National Conference, Western Division, in Hawaii. Last spring the Mount Miguel Ensemble was the guest performing group for the meeting of the San Diego City-County Music Educators Association.

Boucher has been active in many professional music organizations. He held the position for San Diego representative for the Southern California Vocal Association for two years and was a member of the board of the San Diego City-County Music Educators Association.

The Youth Chorale, offering boys and girls an opportunity to rehearse and perform in a vocal group, was added to the Recreation Department's cultural activities program in recent years, joining such organizations as the Youth Symphony Civic Youth Ballet and Junior Theatre. Youth Chorale is open to persons between the ages of 16 and 25 years.

'Grass Run' Saturday At Del Mar

DEL MAR — A pair of traditional stakes — the 19th running of the $12,500 Junior Miss Stakes Friday and the 18th presentation of the $20,000 Escondido Handicap Saturday — will take the racing spotlight this weekend at Del Mar by the sea.

The Escondido, which is contested on the infield grass course at a mile and one furlong, has proved in past seasons to be one of the most popular stakes events on the Del Mar program. It has been run in split divisions three of the last four years.

Among the nominees for the Escondido is Vicgray Farm's Estambul 2nd, winner of a division of the stake in 1967. He will be a likely starter along with stablemates Red Shah, Great Timing and Possible Task.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coffee's Right or Wrong, a converted sprinter who won the rich Los Angeles Handicap recently at Hollywood Park only to be disqualified for interference in favor of Ack Ack, is also a strong candidate. Howard B. Keck's Makor, a contender in the $100,000 Sunset Handicap, and Vee Jay Stable's Argentine-bred Neurologo, are also nominated. Grey and Traver's Duffer, a handy winner here on July 25 at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass, will also try the longer Escondido.

Famed racing announcer Joe Hernandez, who races under the name of the Perla de Chico Stud, had nominated two of his recent Chilean imports — Contratodos and Cougar. Other possible Escondido starters include Eager Eagle, Dagmar's Boy, and Delightful Summer.

Chance For Raises Slim For Supervisors

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Grand Jury made a recommendation Tuesday that the County Board of Supervisors believes is a fine one.

It is that the members of the Board of Supervisors receive a $12,000 raise. It recommended that raises of $3000 be given in 1971, 1973, 1975, and 1977.

The board, also on Tuesday, voted three to zero for a resolution to the state legislature which is somewhat more modest and would call for legislation raising the board salaries to $19,000 from $16,000 for next year. Supervisors' salaries are controlled by legislature.

MacMillan Named Captain Of Gulls For Third Year

San Diego Gulls' Coach and General Manager Max McNab has named smooth and steady Johnny MacMillan as the Gulls' captain for a third straight season.

MacMillan, who has missed only two of the Gulls 310 league and playoff contests, has signed a one-year contract and will report along with 22 or 23 other Gull aspirants to Trail, British Columbia on September 18. McNab says MacMillan was given a "single raise."

"I thought that John enjoyed his best overall season in 1969/70. His penalty killing was better than ever, his overall defensive record was as good as ever and his 67 points in regular season play and seven points in six playoff games were both career highs", McNab said.

MacMillan has been the checker on the Gulls top scoring line in each of the past three seasons, including the Western Hockey League top unit two years ago when he combined with Warren Hynes and Fred Hilts. He and his family live in La Mesa.

Teens Set At USC School Of Music

Teen-agers will be making the scene at the University of Southern California-Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts with the opening of the high school program August 9.

The session will offer arts and crafts Aug. 9-23 and Aug. 23-Sept. 6; ceramics, Aug. 9-22 or Aug. 9-29; music, Aug. 9-23; drama, Aug. 9-30; photography, Aug. 9-23 and Aug. 23-Sept. 6.

Iris grow best in damp spots.

SD Rockets Book 2 Doubleheaders

A pair of doubleheaders and three appearances each by Bob Lanier and Lew Alcindor, the National Basketball Association's top draft choices the past two years, will highlight the San Diego Rocket's 1970-71 home schedule, released this week.

The Rockets will open their 39-game home schedule, Tuesday, October 20, at the San Diego Sports Arena against the Phoenix Suns. Coach Alex Hannum's charges will actually begin league play the week before, on October 13, on the road, meeting the Chicago Bulls. They will play at Baltimore, Philadelphia and Buffalo prior to their home opener.

The doubleheaders, scheduled for December 18 and March 5, are a first for the Rockets during regular season play. Prior to this season, the San Diego club had participated in home doubleheaders only during the exhibition season.

"Doubleheaders have proven to be successful in the NBA in past years," said Rocket general manager Pete Newell. "They will also give our fans a bonus of 41 games for the price of 39."

may be necessary.

Any way you look at it, Broadway is going to be a busy thoroughfare for years to come. But looking at it through the combined eyes of the California Highway Patrol, the County Road Department, the County Traffic Safety Department, and the State Division of Highways, it should be safer.

Pearl Harbor To Be Recalled By Paintings

Pearl Harbor, Dec. 7, 1941, is vividly recalled in a series of paintings on display in the California Museum of Science and Industry, Exposition Park in Los Angeles, through Sept. 13.

Artist Robert McCall was commissioned by 20th Century Fox to create these paintings on location in Hawaii and Japan during the production of their forthcoming motion picture, "Tora! Tora! Tora!" which examines the events which led to the bombing of Pearl Harbor.

U.S. Nat'l Grows To Nation's 132nd Largest

United States National Bank has announced it is now the 132nd largest bank among the more than 14,000 commercial banks in the United States.

The bank was notified of its position by American Banker, a daily publication which serves the banking industry. The position is one place better than the bank's standing a year ago.

United States National reported deposits increased five percent to $433,563,384 for the 12 months ending June 30.

The San Diego-based bank has an office in Lemon Grove at 7946 Broadway.

DR. MAX RAFFERTY, Supperintendent of Public Instruction and Director of Education, and his wife, were in Lemon Grove last week. In a "grass roots" tour for re-election, Rafferty met with area newspaper editors. He also met with School District Superintendent Byron Netzley while here. He said that there is a movement away from consolidating school districts. "The Los Angeles problem changed that. The pressure now is for smaller districts," he said. He sees no possibility of eliminating tenure for teachers. "The lobby is too strong," he said.
The couple visited the Golden Avenue School. "Mighty fine," he said.
Rafferty will face his former aide Wilson Riles in November. In the general election two years ago he was soundly beaten for the post of U.S. Senator by incumbent Alan Cranston.

Cranston Is Keynoter At Mills Fund-Raiser

More than 500 persons are expected to attend a fund raising dinner for State Senator James R. Mills (D-San Diego) August 14 at 8 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Del Coronado, according to Murry Luftig, dinner chairman.

U. S. Senator Alan Cranston (D-California) will be the keynote speaker. George A. Scott will be master-of-ceremonies.

Mills, a ten-year veteran of the State Legislature, is seeking re-election to the 40th Senatorial District, which includes San Diego and Imperial Counties.

Honorary co-chairmen are: Reps. Lionel Van Deerlin (D-San Diego), and John V. Tunney (D-Riverside), State Senator Alfred E. Alquist (D-Santa Clara), Assemblymen Jesse M. Unruh (D-Inglewood) and Wadie P. Deddeh (D-Chula Vista), San Diego Mayor Frank Curran, National City Mayor Kile Morgan, Imperial Beach Mayor Bert L. Stites, and County Supervisor DeGraff Austin.

No-host cocktails in the Garden Room will be served at 7 p.m. Dancing will follow the dinner.

Many of the animals that we call rabbits, such as the snowshoe, are really hares.

County To Develop Morena As Fishing-Camp Facility

There will another fresh-water fishing lake for Lemon Grove-Spring Valley anglers, if Henry Boney has his way.

Boney, chairman of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, said that the county's request for $187,000 grant to develop Lake Morena into a regional park will go before the state Wildlife Conservation Board in Sacramento Aug. 20.

Boney, who proposed to the board last year that the county take over operation of the lake from the City of San Diego, said the state board will be asked for funds to develop the lake into a fresh-water recreation center for fishing, water skiing, and overnight camping.

Lake Morena is in Boney's second supervisorial district and is 50 miles east of Lemon Grove. The lake is located at an elevation of 3,039 feet and has a 15-mile-long shoreline at full capacity.

Boney will represent the county at the Wildlife Conservation Board meeting and said he has asked Bill Hronek, president of the Lake Morena Chamber of Commerce, to accompany him to Sacramento.

The county, in the process of negotiating the take-over from the city's Utilities Department, hopes to open the lake under the supervision of its Parks and Recreation Department sometime next fall, possibly Oct. 1.

The $187,000 state grant would include $79,000 to purchase a water pool from the city, $12,000 for a boat-launching ramp and floats, $48,000 for access roads and parking, $18,500 for restrooms with a utility area, $8,000 for water and sewer service, $10,000 for a well and pump for water replenishment, and $11,000 for signs, fences and other improvements.

Boney said following the takeover from the city the county intends to begin immediate construction of improvements. He said the building program will be in phases with a general upgrading of the lake's facilities planned in subsequent years.

He said one of the first goals of the county will be to begin stocking the lake with top-quality fresh water fish.

The lake's water level will be maintained at a permanently high level.

The lake last year reached 4,000 acre feet of water, the highest level in 20 years.

The county has run tests at the lake site and has determined that enough underground water exists to provide inexpensive replacement to adjust for heavy evaporation during the hot, summer months.

In addition to the state grant, Boney said, the county is prepared to spend up to $50,000 to acquire new boats and refurbish the picnic and campground areas with tables, stoves and other items.

Dr. J. B. Askew, county health director, has indicated willingness to open the lake to body contact sports as soon as a filteration system can be installed to assure proper circulation and treatment of water.

The development of Lake Morena Regional Park will have a major impact on the East County and should be "welcome news to the fishing and boating enthusiasts throughout the county," Boney said.

The county plans to advertise construction bids soon after the first of next year.

Five Dangerous Mexican Flies Found In S.D.

Five Mexican fruit flies were trapped in San Diego County last month. This is one of the most destructive pests currently threatening the California fruit industry.

James M. Moon, San Diego County Agricultural Commissioner, said that a single adult fly was trapped in San Ysidro, three in central downtown San Diego, and one in Pacific Beach. Two other flies were trapped earlier this year.

Although single fruit flies have been found in the past, the five found in July are the largest number trapped in such a short period in San Diego County.

The Mexican fruit fly is native to northeastern Mexico where, for over a hundred years, it has been known as the "orange worm." The female fly punctures the fruit and lays eggs just under the skin. The eggs hatch into larva which burrow into the fruit, feed, and develop into a new generation of flies.

"Many fruits are susceptile to attack by this pest, including most citrus, apples, apricots, avocados, guavas, peaches, pears, plums, quinces, mangoes, sapotes, cherimoyas, and others," Moon stated.

Residents are urged to assist this program by not bringing fruit into this state from Mexico, and by reporting any maggot-infested fruit found in yard plantings. Reports should be made to the project headquarters, P.O. Box 965, Imperial Beach.

Dulzurans Complain About Dead Fish

Residents of Dulzura complained this week that thousands of fish have died as a result of the annual draw-down from Barrett Reservoir.

The fish, which are supposed to be screened from the draw-down, died when water stopped running through Dulzura Creek last week.

In the draw-down, water is let out of Barrett Reservoir into a flume which carries it nine miles to the Dulzura Creek, which carries it to Otay Lake.

According to spokesmen, the screening procedure at Barrett may have failed because of torn screens, or slippage. Many residents in the area set traps for the fish.

GROSSMONT Union High School District students are completing a new home built with $12,000 of funding by the San Diego County Savings & Loan Clearing Association. Victor San Nicolas and Scott Oliver work on wall studs. The home was auctioned last week.

Newspaper Poll To Give Views On National and World Issues

There are ten great issues facing the leaders of our nation today.

How would you react to them if you were in the driver's seat?

As a reader of this newspaper, you have the opportunity to participate in the first National Security Issues Poll.

The American Security Council, not to be confused with the National Security Council, is conducting the poll.

Many readers seek opportunities to express views on the vital defense and foreign policy issues confronting the nation. In the past, opportunities for expression have been largely limited to letters-to-the-editor and letters to members of Congress and other government officials.

This is the first time that newspapers and organizations across the country have cooperated in a National Security Issues straw poll.

We are please to have a chance to afford its readers an opportunity to register their opinions on basic national security issues confronting the nation. Participation in the poll will give readers a way of "telling it like it is" on the life and death issues of our time — Anti-Ballistic Missile defense, maintenance of U. S. military strength, the war in southeast Asia, and victory in the cold war.

This newspaper urges its readers to join with other thoughtful citizens around the country in participation in the poll. In so doing, they will give the President and the Congress a better idea as to the wishes of the public with respect to national defense and foreign affairs.

To participate in the poll, just check the box which most nearly represents your position regarding each of the ten statements below and mail it to us.

When results of this newspaper's part of the poll have been tabulated, we'll publish them. We'll also send the results to the American Security Council which will combine them with what other participating newspapers and organizations have received and release the totals to President Nixon and the Congress.

NATIONAL SECURITY ISSUES POLL:

Pair up ground beef patties with a spoonful of pickle relish and chili sauce in between. Wrap a bacon slice around the sealed edges, secure with toothpicks and grill over the coals. Served on buttered buns, it's an extra hearty burger for barbecue suppers.

L.G. Church Hit For $1000

Office equipment with a replacement cost of more than $1,000 was taken from the office of the Lemon Grove First Congregational church, 2770 Glebe st. Wednesday night according to the Rev. Ernest Fowler, pastor.

Missing was two electric typewriters, an electric adding machine and a small office safe with petty cash in it.

The burglary was discovered when the office was opened by a custodian, the Sheriff's Department said.

The church has been the victim of other losses recently. Mr. Fowler said a microphone, an American flag and a public address system have been taken from the sanctuary in the past weeks.
